Please join us at the Legion of Honor and the de Young Museum in San Francisco for Artful Discoveries, a program for individuals with early-stage dementia and their family member or care partner. Artful Discoveries Tours are interactive and provide a chance to join others in looking and talking about art– no previous experience required! Specially trained museum docents will highlight themes, artists, and exhibitions in the museum’s galleries.

For more information or to make a reservation: vsouza@alz.org or 408-372-9976
We will send you a confirmation and detailed information about coming to the museum.
