Frida Kahlo: Appearances Can Be Deceiving

VIRTUAL ACCESS DAY

Monday, November 16, 2020

10:00 am: Highlights Tour

11:15 am: Highly Descriptive Tour

Both tours will be held online via Zoom. They are Free and will be captioned.

At the time of Frida Kahlo's death in 1954, a treasure trove of the artist's highly personal items—including jewelry, clothing, and prosthetics—were locked away. 50 years later, these belongings were unsealed and now they're on view for the first time on the West Coast at the de Young Museum. Discover what these objects reveal about their now iconic owner in Frida Kahlo: Appearances Can Be Deceiving by joining one or both highlights tours hosted by Access Programs via Zoom.

FREE Admission by Registration. To register click the appropriate link below.

10:00 am: Docent Alfred Escoffier will discuss highlights from the exhibition for a general audience. This virtual "tour" will be captioned.
